HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Results of a strike vote being conducted by members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks employed by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway are not expected to be known until sometime next week.

Today was the deadline for voting by the 5,000 members throughout the carrier's system. The union contends that the railway, by installing a data processing unit here, will then transfer men and work formerly performed by clerical employees to the automatic data processing unit.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Thirteen inmates of Ohio Penitentiary are in solitary confinement.

Warden E. L. Maxwell said the

Some of the 13 are serving life sentences. They will be returned to normal routine when they "cool off," Maxwell said, adding that each is being questioned.

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev sent a message to Pope John XXIII today expressing concern for his illness and praising his efforts for world peace.

"This news moved us deeply," the Tass news agency quoted Khrushchev as saying in a cable. Tass said Khrushchev expressed hope for the Roman Catholic leaders' recovery and the continuation of his "fruitful activity in strengthening peace and peaceful cooperation among peoples."

LONDON (AP)—An Indian government minister said today that the Chinese Communists probably will resume their aggression but predicted India's armed forces would give a better account of themselves next time.

T. T. Krishnamachari, minister for economic and defense coordination, told a news conference that Indian forces would go over to the offensive in any future clash with the Chinese Reds.

He said U.S. and British military technicians already are in India on training missions.

MOSCOW (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan sent letters today to Premier Khrushchev, proposing a new opening toward agreement on a nuclear test ban. Contents of the letter were not made known.

Both Western capitals have felt that the 17-nation test ban negotiations under way for many months in Geneva have reached a stalemate.

Khrushchev has refused to accept more than three on-site test ban inspections per year while the West has demanded at least seven. Various compromise have been proposed but no headway has been made toward a solution.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—An attorney for the Communist party sought the arrest Thursday of Franz Josef Strauss, accusing him of war crimes. The former West German defense minister, a visitor denied the charge.

Attorney Michael Landau asked Tel Aviv police to arrest Strauss. He asserted Strauss had responsibility for the death of a number of Jews, Czechs and Poles in a forced labor camp at Schongau in April 1945.

Stauss, at that time commander of an air defense school in Schongau, said there was a Soviet prisoner-of-war camp there, but no concentration camp.

Negro Widow Wins Lawsuit Over Property

MANASSAS, Va. (AP)—An 86-year-old Negro widow and her family have been declared the legal owners of land on which a developer built 23 gleaming new houses for white families.

The property—16½ acres—was awarded Thursday by a Prince William County Circuit Court jury to Marconia Ray and her nine children after an 11-day trial.

The Rays had claimed Cecil D. Hyton, developer of Marumco village near Woodbridge, Va., took 27½ acres that belonged to their family since 1920.

Lawrence Douglas, attorney for Hyton, said he intends to appeal.

He told the jury of six men and one woman that when bulldozers entered in the disputed area the Rays made no claim of trespassing.

However, Harvey Rosenberg, an attorney for the Rays, said Hyton knew there was a boundary problem when work started.

The 23 houses on the acreage awarded the Rays are Code Booked and sold locally that sell for $14,000 to $22,000. They are part of a white subdivision of the village and just north of the house in which Mrs. Ray and three of her daughters live.

The suit involved only the boundary question. Any financial consideration would have to be settled through negotiation or further litigation.

Ohio Escapes Holiday Toll

But National Traffic Death Total Is Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio weathered the onslaught of Memorial Day traffic and, by the time the first 30 hours of the holiday weekend had passed, not a single traffic fatality was recorded on the state's roads.

It was the first time in the records of the Ohio Highway Safety Department that the state had gone through Memorial Day without a traffic death.

However, safety officials warned that the long weekend is not over.

Highway Safety Director Warren C. (Bud) Nelson, who flew in a high patrol airplane Thursday, said the record is "most gratifying," but he added:

"It's too early to draw any definite conclusions. The only way we can preserve this fine record is for every motorist to drive as if his very life depends on it."

Last year six persons were killed on Memorial Day and 24 for the entire weekend. Officials had predicted 27 would die this year during a 102-hour holiday period.

The holiday period began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and continues through midnight Sunday.

The state also was free of other types of accidental deaths as well—boating, drowning and miscellaneous.

This contrasted with the 24 persons killed in traffic accidents and 4 others in miscellaneous mishaps over the Memorial Day weekend a year ago.

The nation's traffic deaths hit a record high for a one-day observance of Memorial Day and surpassed the preholiday estimate of 130 by safety experts.

The death toll on the highways for the 30-hour holiday period from 6 a.m. Wednesday to midnight Thursday was 155. Related reports are expected to boost the total.

The previous record high for a one-day Memorial Day holiday was 109 in 1955.

The National Safety Council had estimated that between 90 and 130 persons would be killed on the highways and streets during the holiday period. The council's latest report showed that traffic accidents in the first four months this year killed 11,630 persons, an average of nearly 100 a day.

This year's Memorial Day traffic death toll compared to 107 for the 1952 holiday, also a period of 30 hours. In 1951, the only other one-day observance of the holiday since World War II, traffic deaths numbered 81, which is a record low for any one-day observance of any holiday.

Generally fair weather in most of the country lured millions of persons to the highways in the first holiday of the warm season. Memorial Day is not a legal holiday in several southern states. Most workers in states which observed the holiday, available information indicates, were back on the job today, including an extended weekend holiday.

No Shortage Of Sugar in U.S. Seen

NEW YORK (AP)—No shortage of sugar is threatened in the United States, the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange said today, despite roller coaster activity of sugar prices and talk about hoarding.

In a memorandum to three congressional committees investigating the sugar situation, the exchange quoted the U.S. Agriculture Department as saying that commitments from friendly nations exporting sugar indicates that the normal requirements of the United States will be met.

The exchange said the memorandum is designed to correct some misunderstanding of the role in the free enterprise marketing system.

Among the points stressed is that exchanges neither buy nor sell commodities at any time for their own account.

The congressional investigations developed from the belief of some members of the Senate and House that the quick rise from about 2½ to more than 12 cents a pound for raw sugar was caused in part by deliberate withholding by suppliers seeking exorbitant profits.

Sugar prices have dropped in recent days after skyrocketing.

The coffee and sugar exchange said the rise in sugar prices "is directly traceable to supply and demand. World sugar production has fallen while the world's consumption of sugar is rising."

Columbia Terrorists Use Cuban Guns, Claim

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Official sources reported today that arms being used by terrorists in Colombia were shipped from Cuba.

They said captured carbines in Colombia bore serial numbers of weapons once shipped by the late Dictator Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo to his friend, Dictator Fulgenio Batista in Cuba. They thus fell into the hands of Fidel Castro when he ousted Batista in 1959.

Tallahassee Judge Delays Hearings For Negroes Held in Demonstrations

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Circuit Court Judge Ben C. Willis recessed consideration of contempt of court charges against Negroes arrested Thursday night for demonstrating against two segregated movie theaters.

After a session devoted to attorney assignments, Willis divided the Negroes into three case groups: 150 to be tried first, then 3 and 33 under the age of 17 to be handled in Juvenile Court separately.

Negro leader Patricia Due said all would plead not guilty. As Willis asked each of the defendants separately the name of their attorney, Negro girls in the crowded courtroom giggled, and there was low chatting among the more than 550 present.

One white man, Harold E. Taylor of Tallahassee, told the judge, "I have no attorney except God." Willis told him to find a lawyer. Willis made Negroes promise there would be no disturbance during the recess.

The courtroom crowd included more than 450 Negroes from Florida A&M University. Shortly before they left the campus, one mile away, the student body president, Willie Adams told a mass rally:

"If the court ruling is favorable, we will consider before taking further action. If it is not, demonstrations will continue. Be confident."

Boy Injured As Pranksters Fire 'Bomb'

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An aerial bomb apparently set by pranksters exploded in the face of a 14-year-old boy Thursday night, injuring him critically.

Outdoor graduation ceremonies were under way across the street when Kettering Fairmont High School, as the boy, Mark Wilkus, and three companions walked across one of the bombs sticking in the ground and yelled for him to stay away. Mark bent down to examine the bomb and it went off in his face.

At that precise moment—8:30 p.m.—James Readey, an outstanding member of the high school class—was delivering a speech "Aim for a Star." Four aerial bombs skyrocketed into the sky, exploding with a deafening bang. One of the bombs struck young Wilkus.

Lt. Gerald Smith of the local police department stepped to a microphone, told the audience what had happened and asked the persons responsible for planting the bombs to come to the area.

Three 18-year-old members of the graduating class appeared, Lt. Smith said, and told him of wiring, planting and setting the time bombs to go off as a prank. The boys were in custody, and charges were delayed pending the outcome of an investigation.

Willis had ordered the protests halted Thursday, pending a hearing Monday. The judge authorized court officers to arrest demonstrators who refused to disperse.

There was no violence during the marches, aimed at segregated movie theaters. A series of sit-in demonstrations some time ago resulted in the quiet desegregation

21 U.S. Tuna Boats Held

SALINAS, Ecuador (AP)—Ecuador held 21 tuna boats from San Diego, Calif., today for alleged illegal fishing within its territorial waters.

Two boats, the White Star and the Ranger, faced charges originally. But Commander Francisco Espinosa of the navy general staff said Thursday night the fleet of 21 would be impounded and the captains tried if they lacked proper permits.

Nineteen of the boats reported they accompanied the White Star and Ranger to port in a show of solidarity. The navy said, however, its warships escorted all the tuna boats to this port, 225 miles southwest of Quito.

The tuna skippers claim they fished 13 miles offshore while Ecuador contends they were only 3 miles off shore. The United States recognizes only a three-mile territorial limit.

Texan Takes Jet Ride at Age 100

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—William Robert Huckaby did something different Thursday on his 100th birthday—he flew in a jet airliner from Houston to Dallas.

"First time in the air in my life," he said "but it's not too much different from settin' in the living room."

Huckaby, a retired farmer, lives with a son at Pasadena, a Houston suburb.

"Never fought a war, never killed a man, never took a drink, used tobacco or cussed," Huckaby summed up his long life.

Is that the reason he's still going strong at 100?

"Oh no," he said. "Just too busy working to count the years, and pretty soon they mounted up."

of lunch counters in the business district.

Plans remained unchanged for another massive protest of segregation at two white theaters to night.

The mass arrests in Tallahassee provided the major development on the racial front Thursday, but antisegregation activity was popping in many points across the nation.

Integrationists made plans to increase the tempo of demonstrations against segregation in Jackson, Miss.

A Negro spokesman said a massive, Birmingham-type campaign will be launched in Los Angeles with total elimination of discrimination as its goal.

Cities experiencing racial demonstrations Thursday included Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Baton Rouge, La., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Cambridge, Md.

In Tallahassee, the 220 jailed by county officers were part of a first protest before theater. An hour later, city police broke up a second march of approximately 200 Negroes and arrested 7 on charges of unlawful assembly.

The police used two tear gas bombs and a determined line to turn back the second group. The 7 arrested refused to leave a churchyard where they had taken refuge from the tear gas.

Businessmen Urge Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—A businessmen's committee organized last month to rally support for President Kennedy's tax cutting plans has declared a reduction in his 1954 budget is "reasonable and practicable."

"We have had large, progressive increases in recent years and there is no justification for a continuation of the upward trend," the committee of industrialists and financiers headed by Henry Ford II said Thursday.

The businessmen did not say how much they thought the $98.8-billion budget for 1964, the largest in history, should be cut. However, they said they do not favor a reduction as great as the $10-billion tax cut they have recommended.

The committee calls itself the Business Committee for Tax Reduction in 1963.

Tinker Bell only likes to sleep with her master.

"Patricia and Tinker Bell just don't seem to hit it off right," said Michelberger Thursday. "I just wanted to see how far one could go to make a wild animal tame."

"It like the little stinker," commented Patricia, "but I'm darned if it's going to sleep in our bed." Michelberger didn't enlighten newsmen as to his next move.

Deterioration Sharp Today, Vatican Says

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The condition of Pope John XXIII deteriorated sharply today and the Vatican press office said he was suffering pain. A Vatican source reported difficulty was becoming evident in the Pope's speech.

A press office announcement at 6:45 a. m. said there had been a further deterioration in the Pope's condition from that of the day, when it had been described by Vatican organs as very grave.

As his condition worsened, a Vatican source said, the Pope prayed to himself.

He said to those around his bed that, "on the point of leaving," he wanted to thank them again.

Roman Catholic prelates had administered to him the communion viaticum and extreme unction, the sacraments for persons in danger of dying.

One of the Pope's doctors, Piero Mazzoni of Rome, was quoted as saying, "It can be a matter of hours—or of days."

That pronouncement was relayed to newsmen by Raimondo Manzini, director of the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano after an afternoon visit to the sickroom. Manzini was in tears.

"The Pope is grave, very grave," the Vatican radio announced. The new crisis is most grave.

The 81-year-old spiritual ruler of the world's 500 million Roman Catholics, who had appeared to be making a strong comeback from a near fatal crisis Tuesday, was reported failing rapidly.

It was a situation that he has reached severely.

"Don't worry too much about me," he told his chief physician, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, on Gasbarrini's departure Thursday for his home in Bologna. "The bags are packed and I am ready, in fact very ready, to go."

Gasbarrini was recalled from Bologna to assist physicians already on the scene when the emergency developed today.

It was believed the Pope suffered a new outbreak of internal bleeding, provoked by an internal stomach growth which had troubled him for a year. So far vague, it could be a benign tumor, a cancer or an overgrowth of normal tissue.

To all members of the Vatican staff, the word went out: "Pray!" Cardinals rushed to the Vatican. Only a few were admitted to the apartment where the Pope lay on a cast iron bed.

Among those admitted were Archbishop Angelo Dell'Acqua, substitute secretary of state; Giuseppe Siri, secretary of state.

U.S. 'Voice' Still Heard By Cubans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Voice America is still being heard in Cuba, although the Castro regime and the Soviet Union are trying to drown it out.

They are using the electronic jamming techniques the Kremlin has used for years to interfere with the reception of American broadcasts beamed at the Soviet Union.

The Voice of America, part of the U.S. Information Agency, has increased its Spanish language transmissions to nine hours a day since last fall's Cuban crisis.

Its short wave stations also broadcast 60 minutes of programs in Russian for the Soviet troops and personnel stationed in Cuba.

Voice of America officials estimate that 900,000 Cubans, about one-seventh of the population, tune in to the American broadcasts. Outside of Havana, the officials said, the jamming reportedly has little success.

Voice officials have no count of how many Russians are listening. But they said Soviet attempts to jam the U.S. programs with transmitters based in the Soviet Union have had virtually no effect on the American signal.

Negro Widow Wins Lawsuit Over Property

MANASSAS, Va. (AP)—An 86-year-old Negro widow and her family have been declared the legal owners of land on which a developer built 23 gleaming new houses for white families.

The property—16½ acres—was awarded Thursday by a Prince William County Circuit Court jury to Marconia Ray and her nine children after an 11-day trial.

The suit involved only the boundary question. Any financial consideration would have to be settled through negotiation or further litigation.

Ohio Escapes Holiday Toll

But National Traffic Death Total Is Record

Ohio weathered the onslaught of Memorial Day traffic and, by the time the first 30 hours of the holiday weekend had passed, not a single traffic fatality was recorded on the state's roads.

The death toll on the highways for the 30-hour holiday period from 6 a.m. Wednesday to midnight Thursday was 155. Related reports are expected to boost the total. The previous record high for a one-day Memorial Day holiday was 109 in 1958.

The National Safety Council had estimated that between 90 and 130 persons would be killed on the highways and streets during the holiday period. The council's latest report showed that traffic accidents in the first four months this year killed 11,690 persons, an average of nearly 100 a day.

This year's Memorial Day traffic death toll compared to 107 for the 1952 holiday, also a period of 30 hours. In 1951, the only other one-day observance of the holiday since World War II, traffic deaths numbered 81, which is a record low for any one-day observance of any holiday.

Generally fair weather in most of the country lured millions of persons to the highways in the first holiday of the warm season. Memorial Day is not a legal holiday in several southern states.

Most workers in states which observed the holiday, available information indicates, were back on the job today, including an extended weekend holiday.

Boy Injured As Pranksters Fire 'Bomb'

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An aerial bomb apparently set by pranksters exploded in the face of a 14-year-old boy Thursday night, injuring him critically.

Outdoor graduation ceremonies were under way across the street at Kettering Fairmont High School as the boy, Mark Wilkus, and three companions walked across one of the bombs sticking in the ground and yelled for him to stay away. Mark bent down to examine the bomb and it went off in his face.

Lt. Gerald Smith of the local police department stepped to a microphone, told the audience what had happened and asked the persons responsible for planting the bombs to come to the area.

Three 18-year-old members of the graduating class appeared, Lt. Smith said, and told him of wiring, planting and setting the time bombs to go off as a prank. The boys were in custody, and charges were delayed pending the outcome of an investigation.

SALINAS, Ecuador (AP)—Ecuador held 21 tuna boats from San Diego, Calif., today for alleged illegal fishing within its territorial waters.

Two boats, the White Star and the Ranger, faced charges originally. But Commander Francisco Espinosa of the navy general staff said Thursday night the fleet of 21 would be impounded and the captains tried if they lacked proper permits.

Nineteen of the boats reported they accompanied the White Star and Ranger to port in a show of solidarity. The navy said, however, its warships escorted all the tuna boats to this port, 225 miles southwest of Quito.

The tuna skippers claim they fished 13 miles offshore while Ecuador contends they were only 3 miles off shore. The United States recognizes only a three-mile territorial limit.

Texan Takes Jet Ride at Age 100

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—William Robert Huckaby did something different Thursday on his 100th birthday—he flew in a jet airliner from Houston to Dallas.

"First time in the air in my life," he said "but it's not too much different from settin' in the living room."

Huckaby, a retired farmer, lives with a son at Pasadena, a Houston suburb.

"Never fought a war, never killed a man, never took a drink, used tobacco or cussed," Huckaby summed up his long life.

Is that the reason he's still going strong at 100?

"Oh no," he said. "Just too busy working to count the years, and pretty soon they mounted up."

Plans remained unchanged for another massive protest of segregation at two white theaters to night.

The mass arrests in Tallahassee provided the major development on the racial front Thursday, but antisegregation activity was popping in many points across the nation.

Integrationists made plans to increase the tempo of demonstrations against segregation in Jackson, Miss.

A Negro spokesman said a massive, Birmingham-type campaign will be launched in Los Angeles with total elimination of discrimination as its goal.

Cities experiencing racial demonstrations Thursday included Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Baton Rouge, La., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Cambridge, Md.

In Tallahassee, the 220 jailed by county officers were part of a first protest before theater. An hour later, city police broke up a second march of approximately 200 Negroes and arrested 7 on charges of unlawful assembly.

The police used two tear gas bombs and a determined line to turn back the second group. The 7 arrested refused to leave a churchyard where they had taken refuge from the tear gas.

Businessmen Urge Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—A businessmen's committee organized last month to rally support for President Kennedy's tax cutting plans has declared a reduction in his 1954 budget is "reasonable and practicable."

"We have had large, progressive increases in recent years and there is no justification for a continuation of the upward trend," the committee of industrialists and financiers headed by Henry Ford II said Thursday.

The businessmen did not say how much they thought the $98.8 billion budget for 1964, the largest in history, should be cut. However they said they do not favor a reduction as great as the $10-billion tax cut they have recommended.

The committee calls itself the Business Committee for Tax Reduction in 1963.

Leopard Unwanted In Wedding Bed

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A leopard bed is no place for a pet leopard, says Patricia Sanders.

And unless, Tinker Bell, a 10-week-old leopard learns to sleep in a cage, Miss Sanders' marriage to Frank Michelberger is off.

Tinker Bell only likes to sleep with her master.

"Patricia and Tinker Bell just don't seem to hit it off right," said Michelberger Thursday. "I just wanted to see how far one could go to make a wild animal tame."

"It's like the little chicken," counted Patricia, "but I'm darned if it's going to sleep in our bed."

Michelberger didn't enlighten newsmen as to his next move.

Deterioration Sharp Today, Vatican Says

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The condition of Pope John XXIII deteriorated sharply today and the Vatican press office said he was suffering pain. A Vatican source reported difficulty was becoming evident in the Pope's speech.

A press office announcement at 6:45 a. m. said there had been a further deterioration in the Pope's condition from that of the day, when it had been described by Vatican organs as very grave.

As his condition worsened, a Vatican source said, the Pope prayed to himself.

He said to those around his bed that, "on the point of leaving," he wanted to thank them again.

Roman Catholic prelates had administered to him the communion viaticum and extreme unction, the sacraments for persons in danger of dying.

One of the Pope's doctors, Piero Marzoni of Rome, was quoted as saying, "It can be a matter of hours—or of days."

That pronouncement was relayed to newsmen by Raimondo Manzini, director of the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano after an afternoon visit to the sickroom. Manzini was in tears.

"The Pope is grave, very grave," the Vatican radio announced. The new crisis is most grave.

The 81-year-old spiritual ruler of the world's 500 million Roman Catholics, who had appeared to be making a strong comeback from a near fatal crisis Tuesday, was reported failing rapidly.

It was a situation that he has reversed serenely.

"Don't worry too much about me," he told his chief physician, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, on Gasbarrini's departure Thursday for his home in Bologna. "The bags are packed and I am ready, in fact very ready, to go."

Gasbarrini was recalled from Bologna to assist physicians already on the scene when the emergency developed today.

It was believed the Pope suffered a new outbreak of internal bleeding, provoked by an internal stomach growth which had troubled him for a year. So far vaguely defined, it could be a benign tumor, a cancer or an overgrowth of normal tissue.

To all members of the Vatican staff, the word went out: "Pray!" Cardinals rushed to the Vatican. Only a few were admitted to the apartment where the Pope lay on a cast iron bed.

U.S. 'Voice' Still Heard By Cubans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Voice America is still being heard in Cuba, although the Castro regime and the Soviet Union are trying to drown it out.

They are using the electronic jamming techniques the Kremlin has used for years to interfere with the reception of American broadcasts beamed at the Soviet Union.

The Voice of America, part of the U.S. Information Agency, has increased its Spanish language transmissions to nine hours a day since last fall's Cuban crisis.

Its short wave stations also broadcast 60 minutes of programs in Russian for the Soviet troop and personnel stationed in Cuba. Voice of America officials estimate that 900,000 Cubans, about one-seventh of the population, tune in to the American broadcasts. Outside of Havana, the officials said, the jamming reportedly has little success.

Voice officials have no count of how many Russians are listening. But they said Soviet attempts to jam the U.S. programs with transmitters based in the Soviet Union have had virtually no effect on the American signal.

Deterioration

tavo Cardinal Cento of the Vatican Curia, and Raimondo Manzini, director of L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper.
It was a dramatic turn in the illness of the pontiff.
This morning the Vatican had said the Pope was continuing to rally. The press office said he spend a tranquil night.
Prelates were looking ahead to the Pope resuming activity.
Suddenly came the crisis that his doctors had feared—a crisis at a time when he was still weak from the last one.
Doctors reported the hemorrhaging had been halted Wednesday. The Pope's personal doctor, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, had returned to his home in Bologna.
Gasbarrini said he and his colleagues were confident the Pope would rally.
But he provided a possible clue to the new collapse.
He told newsmen that Pope John should stay in bed, but had refused to do so.
Manzini, emerging from the sickroom, told newsmen the Pope had "suffered a complete reverse."

"An unexpected worsening, against all expectations, has occurred in the general condition of the Pope," he said.
Dr. Gasbarrini started back immediately from Bologna.
Although the press office had said the Pope had a quiet night, Manzini indicated the new crisis had its beginning before dawn.
"There was a state of uncertainty starting about midnight," Manzini said and Dr. Manzoni was immediately summoned to the papal apartment.
Apparently the setback did not become critical immediately.
Manzini said Dr. Manzoni remained in the apartment and that the Pope, by 6:30 a.m., was able to hear Mass celebrated in the study next to the bedroom. Manzini said the Pope also received communion.
At 9 a.m., with the Pope still feeling pain, his Rome surgeon, Pietro Valdoni, was summoned.
Manzini said Valdoni "ascertained an increased gravity in the Pope's condition."

The newspaper director said the Pope was informed and asked to receive extreme unction, a sacrament of holy oils and prayers administered by a priest. The request showed the Pope was conscious.
Physicians knew the Pope's stomach growth, gastric heteroplasia, was a continuing threat and had cautioned him to take things easy.
But he had been gaining strength.
One of the Pope's doctors quoted him as saying he hoped to see the conclusion of the Ecumenical Council, scheduled to reopen Sept. 8 and last until Christmas. "This was viewed as an indication that Pope John might soon return to work despite his ailment."

He was stricken a year ago, but continued his work between crises.
It appeared he was counting on going on indefinitely though he has said repeatedly he is ready for death.
He had maintained that his duties as supreme ruler of the Roman Catholic Church demanded that he make every sacrifice even if continued work meant his life.
Manzini said the Pope said he was sure the Ecumenical Council work would be completed.
This was a clear plea to any successor to continue the council, which would remain suspended after the Pope's death. His successor need not reconvene it.

Deterioration

tavo Cardinal Cento of the Vatican Curia, and Raimondo Manzini, director of L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper.

It was a dramatic turn in the illness of the pontiff.

This morning the Vatican had said the Pope was continuing to rally. The press office said he spend a tranquil night.

Prelates were looking ahead to the Pope resuming activity.

Suddenly came the crisis that his doctors had feared—a crisis at a time when he was still weak from the last one.

Doctors reported the hemorrhaging had been halted Wednesday. The Pope's personal doctor, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, had returned to his home in Bologna.

Gasbarrini said he and his colleagues were confident the Pope would rally.

But he provided a possible clue to the new collapse.

He told newsmen then that Pope John should stay in bed, but had refused to do so.

Manzini, emerging from the sickroom, told newsmen the Pope had "suffered a complete reverse."

"An unexpected worsening, against all expectations, has occurred in the general condition of the Pope," he said.

Dr. Gasbarrini started back immediately from Bologna.

Although the press office had said the Pope had a quiet night, Manzini indicated the new crisis had its beginning before dawn.

"There was a state of uncertainty starting about midnight," Manzini said and Dr. Mazzoni was immediately summoned to the papal apartment.

Apparently the setback did not become critical immediately.

Manzini said Dr. Mazzoni remained in the apartment and that the Pope, by 6:30 a.m., was able to hear Mass celebrated in the study next to the bedroom. Manzini said the Pope also received communion.

At 9 a.m., with the Pope still feeling pain, his Rome surgeon, Pietro Valdori, was summoned.

Manzini said Valdori "ascertained an increased gravity in the Pope's condition."

The newspaper director said the Pope was informed and asked to receive extreme unction, a sacrament of holy oils and prayers administered by a priest. The request showed the Pope was conscious.

Physicians knew the Pope's stomach growth, gastric heteroplasia, was a continuing threat and had cautioned him to take things easy.

But he had been gaining strength.

One of the Pope's doctors quoted him as saying he hoped to see the conclusion of the Ecumenical Council, scheduled to reopen Sept. 8 and last until Christmas. This was viewed as an indication that Pope John might soon return to work despite his ailment.

He was stricken a year ago, but continued his work between crises.

It appeared he was counting on going on indefinitely though he has said repeatedly he is ready for death.

He had maintained that his duties as supreme ruler of the Roman Catholic Church demanded that he make every sacrifice even if continued work meant his life.

Manzini said the Pope said he was sure the Ecumenical Council work would be completed.

This was a clear clue to any successor to continue the council, which would remain suspended after the Pope's death. His successor need not reconvene it.

Driver Escapes Serious Injury, Cited for OMVI

An Ashville area man escaped serious injury shortly after midnight when he lost control of his auto on Route 23, about 2 1/2 miles north of South Bloomfield.

Adrian A. Brumfield, 39, Route 1, Ashville, complained of a cut on the forehead and a sprained shoulder according to State Highway Patrolman, who arrested Brumfield for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Acting - Judge Harry Margulis fined Brumfield $100 and costs, sentenced him to three days in jail and suspended his operating license for six months on the OMVI conviction today in Circleville Municipal Court.

Patrolmen said Brumfield was headed south on Route 23 when he lost control of his auto, went off the right side of the highway and struck a mailbox, back across the highway and upset in the highway median area.

Minor injuries occurred in a two-car mishap yesterday at 6:30 a.m. on Route 56 about 7 1/2 miles southeast of Circleville.

Lyle Bainter, 22, of 474 Half Ave., was treated at Berger Hospital for abrasions of the forehead and knees following the accident.

According to State Highway Patrolmen, Bainter attempted to pass another vehicle when he was side-swiped by an auto driven by Eddie Boecher, 19, Laurelvile. Patrolmen said Boecher was heading the opposite direction when he noticed Bainter attempting to pass the vehicle. He swerved his auto off the highway and lost control causing his car to swerve back onto the highway and into the Bainter vehicle.

Patrolmen said Bainter was cited to appear in Circleville Municipal Court for passing a vehicle without assured clear distance ahead.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

JOHN STRALEY tells of a young Irishman who began making good money, and was persuaded to open a checking account in the local bank. At the end of the month he received his first statement and batch of cancelled checks. "Tis a fine bank we've got here," he nodded approvingly. "I thought I'd spent a big wad of money, but I see the bank got every one of my checks back for me!"

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—America's loss of gold—and the continuing buildup of pressure against the dollar—is one of the Kennedy administration's chief headaches. The problem is complicated and potentially dangerous.

But just as complicated are the variety of causes blamed. Depending on where you sit, the reasons we are still sending more dollars overseas than we are getting back, and therefore losing some of our gold reserves from time to time can be these:

Critics of foreign aid policies like to point out that this sum usually has approximated the deficit in our international balance of payments. Their moral: cut U.S. spending abroad for military and economic aid and you balance the books.

France took the major share of the gold lost in the first quarter of this year. And that eats Americans wondering what President Charles de Gaulle is up to these days.

Those who worry about all the money American corporations have been spending abroad for new plants and other branches contend that this sum adds to our dollar loss. U.S. planters abroad export jobs by decreasing by that much the market for goods made here. American businessmen stress that income from foreign investments past and present tops the outflow of dollars for new ventures.

Bankers who think interest rates here are too low in comparison with those paid in Europe stress the outflow of hot money—short-term investment funds. This has been blamed in most of our critical periods of sudden increase in the loss of gold and of foreign concern about the future value of the dollar. A pact between the central banks of the United States and chief European nations to control any runs on currency has helped in recent months to hold down this threat on gold reserves.

Some point out that U.S. tourists and the families of service men stationed overseas spend a great deal more abroad than do foreign visitors to our shores.

And even the distillers of American whisky are advising the U.S. Department of Commerce that the United States imported $295 million more in alcoholic beverages—wines, brandies, cordials as well as whisky—than it exported last year.

The over-all loss of gold in the first three months of 1963 is put at $111 million, including sale of $15 million for domestic industrial and artistic uses.

France took $101.3 million and Spain $70 million. Lesser amounts: Britain, $20 million; Italy, $15 million; Germany, $10 million; and the Netherlands, $5 million. But net transactions with Britain show a gold inflow here of $106.5 million, probably due to a pound sterling crisis in March.

Trying To Do Too Much

By John Chamberlain

Never, in the history of the human race, have governments tried to do so much for people as in these frightening middle years of the Twentieth Century. And never has there been such turmoil and inability to govern.

Whether there is a vital connection between the two sets of facts is something that cannot be proved scientifically; history, unlike a laboratory experiment, cannot be run over again. But men used to think that there were things a government should do and things that it should leave to private individuals and voluntary associations.

For example, Adam Smith, the Eighteenth Century political economist, thought that the city or the State should limit its role to providing cleanliness and safety, protecting people against such hazards as theft, murder, legal injustices, foreign invasion, traffic accidents, fires and epidemic diseases. Cheapness or plenty, said Smith, could best be left to the business enterpriser once a clean and safe state had been established.

We don't as a people believe in such a hard-and-fast division of social labors anymore. The State thinks it can provide cheap and plentiful goods by mixing in the economic process at a thousand points. It builds big dams, extends its own rural electrification into urban regions, offers a food-stamp plan to the hungry, underwrites all sorts of make-work projects, lets people stay on relief rolls even when jobs are to be had, and gives subsidies of many kinds to businesses and favored economic blocs.

Now, since it is a law of sociology that customs are slow to change, only the most doctrinaire conservatives think that the wildly splurging Welfare State could be dismantled overnight. It takes time, patience, and careful organization to alter any climate of opinion. But the likelihood that the State will keep on trying to do a million things for millions of people does not mean that it will ever succeed in doing any of them well. And one of these days it may possibly come to a voting majority that Mr. Dooley, the Irish-American sage, was right when he said of the State-worshipping Napoleon, "He tried to do too much and did it."

The soundness of this columnist's observations about the incompetence of the supposedly omniscient government might be tested by a look at our big cities. They are receiving all sorts of aid from the federal government. Blocks of slums are ripped down and built up again; relief is provided under the second and third generation of relief claimants. There is subsidized low rent housing, and even State supported middle-income housing. Yet, with Washington, D. C., taking the lead in the effort to supply "cheapness or plenty" to the populations of modern cities, our urban wildernesses get less clean and less safe all the time.

Take New York City, for example. Just a few days ago the Park Association of New York made public the results of a survey of what citizens would like to have in their parks. The people whom the Park Association questioned turned in the most anguished sort of answers. The parks, it turns out, are nowhere near as safe as the Congo when the UN and Tshombe were locked in bitter struggle. Robbers and muggers make them useless to strollers at night. Even by day people in the parks are annoyed by sex deviates or endangered by young ball players and bicycle riders who abide by no known rules of sportsmanship. As for dirt there is the endless drift of wind-blown paper and, worse than this, some extremely voracious rats.

So, in the parks, the city cannot provide cleanliness and safety. The New York City Commissioner of Parks, Mr. Newbold Morris, is a competent and humane man, a sports lover who spends hours making the circuit of tennis courts, municipal golf links, and all the other facilities which the city provides. But he can't police and clean the parks all by himself. In the days before the big State-supported housing developments banished watchful shopkeepers from streets adjacent to parks and public squares, the coming and going of a variegated crowd of shoppers and window gazers resulted in a good deal of self-policing. But these days have passed.

It could be that government, in trying to be everything to everybody, instead of doing a couple of things well, is making the world a jumble.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Infection of the mastoid was once a dread disease of childhood.

No area in medicine or surgery was as dramatically affected by the discovery of sulfa and the antibiotics as was mastoiditis and surgery of the mastoid. The severity of the disease and the frequency with which the mastoid bone had to be removed was reduced to a minimum. Acute infection of the ear that formerly extended to the mastoid bone behind the ear is now almost always controlled at its source by the antibiotics.

Despite the decline of mastoid surgery for acute infections, there has been for the past ten years new impetus for the planning of reconstructive mastoid surgery. Patients with long-standing and recurring discharge from the ear, usually associated with some hearing impairment, can now be helped by surgery. The objective of the operation is to cure these chronic infections and to effect the return of hearing.

Delicate surgical procedures have been devised and modified so that areas of the ear formerly considered unapproachable are now being repaired with gratifying success. This intricate surgery is often performed under a microscope, using instruments so tiny that their special curvatures are not visible to the naked eye. Ears that have been uncomfortably discharging for many years have become dry when the infection is eliminated surgically. Hearing has often been improved and the danger of extending infection has been lessened by these new techniques.

With this microsurgery, the entire hearing mechanism can be reconstructed by an operation called "tympanoplasty." Minute polythene tubes introduced under the microscope have re-established the mechanism for the conduction of sound.

The complete surgical renaissance of the ear and mastoid for infections and for the cure of deafness is its own testimonial to the progress of medicine.

Future columns will be devoted to even more exciting developments in ear surgery, devised for a specific kind of deafness called otosclerosis.

At the turn of the century the word "hospital" or "operation" implanted paralyzing fear in patients and their anxious families. Admission to a hospital connoted the end of hope to these frightened people. Surgery was mistakenly believed to be a gesture of last resort when all other treatment failed. Even then, this notion was unfounded in fact. Yet with some it still persists.

For most people, hospitalization now has come to represent better care and more rapid recovery. The advances of surgery and the safety of anesthesia, in conjunction with pre-operative psychological reassurance, have converted fear into faith.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Beef is hard to beat for economical eating this holiday weekend. In some markets prices are lower than they have been for any May in years.

The flow of feed cattle to market accounts for most of the lower price level.

One national chain offers sirloin steaks at 79 cents a pound and rib steaks at 69 cents in its New York area outlets this weekend. Rib roasts are another widespread feature. Many grocers are featuring hamburger as a holiday weekend item.

Pork prices have moved up a bit after several weeks at low levels. Canned hams, ideal for picnic eating, are offered at bargain prices at many shops. Short-ribs for holiday barbecues are another standout. Smoked picnics and bacon are also featured.

Many supermarkets are running specials on franks, with one chain tagging them at 49 cents a pound. Poultry fare continues economical.

Southeastern shops feature baking hens. Broiler fryers are almost a universal feature, with Midwest stores especially pushing them.

Corn on the cob and watermelon, two seasonal favorites, currently lead their departments at many grocers.

Joining watermelon at fruit counters are pineapple, strawberries and in the southwest, such delights as blackberries, plums and cherries.

Toledo Refinery Jolted by Blasts

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Rupture of a line carrying hydrocarbon gas at the Sun Oil Co.'s giant refinery caused two sharp explosions and a small fire Thursday night. No injuries were reported. Herbert Thober, the refinery manager, said damage probably would be minor. The fire was under control in just over one hour. Plant firemen and 12 units from the Toledo Fire Department fought the blaze.

Thober said the break was in the $8 million naphthalene plant, which was to have been down for an overhaul Monday. He couldn't determine if the explosions were related to the shutdown operation.

The company kept firemen at the plant throughout the night and permitted the gas to burn off harmlessly.

Clermont Couple Killed by Shots

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—A holiday outing for two brothers and their wives ended with the shooting death of one couple, according to Clermont County sheriff's deputies.

Investigators said the couple had stopped at their Clermont County home after a holiday drive Thursday with Baker's brother, Elmer Baker, and his wife, Alice, of Cincinnati.

Elmer Baker and his wife waited in the car outside the William Baker home but rushed inside when they heard shots. William Baker was still alive but died later at Mercy Hospital.

Officers said there was no indication of a quarrel or other trouble between the couple.

'Carats' and Lettuce!

DEAR ABBY: What should a person do when someone asks her how many carats her diamond ring is? I have recently become engaged and am wearing a very beautiful diamond ring. I have had people I hardly know ask me this question. Of course I know how many carats my ring is but I don't think it's anybody else's business. How should I handle this?

HAVE A DIAMOND

DEAR HAVE: Those who ask how many carats a diamond is are far more interested in how much lettuce is involved. The only good answer to a presumptuous question is an honest, "I'm not telling."

DEAR ABBY: My wife is my problem. We've been married 22 years and have one child, a daughter 17. She's a normal, average girl and has never given us any trouble. My wife has been a personal maid for this child all her life. She's never allowed her to spend a night with a girl friend or go to summer camp. When the question of college came up, my wife said if Doris (not her real name) went away to college, life wouldn't be worth living and she'd die of loneliness. Personally, I think Doris should go away to college. She wants to, but her mother won't even discuss it. What should be done?

ONLY THE FATHER

DEAR ONLY: It appears that you already have one neurotic woman on your hands—do you want to try for two? Ask your clergyman, family doctor or someone outside your family, whose opinion you wife respects, to point out to your wife that her "attachment" to her daughter is not good. Now is the time to curtail it, or you will soon be looking for a psychiatrist with twin couches.

DEAR ABBY: We had a big discussion about which is more important in rearing children—heredity or environment. It is very discouraging for parents to be told that, in spite of their efforts, heredity plays a far more important part in the character of their children. I disagree completely. I'd like your views.

DEAR THINKER: The frightening thing about heredity and en-

Your Beauty Guide

by Phyllis Atwood

This week, a few ideas to keep in mind when choosing your new hairdo... These are not a must, but are good basic suggestions.

ROUND FACE — Hair should be short, sleek at the side, with height on top.

LONG FACE — A hair style that has width at the sides, being fluffed out around the ears. Bangs also conceal a high forehead.

TRIANGULAR FACE — A variation of the popular page-boy bob is usually good for this type. Also the hair should be smooth on top, perhaps, with a center part to cover the wide corners of the forehead.

SQUARE FACE: Wear hair sleek at the sides, and drawn upward from the ears.

Toledo Refinery Jolted by Blasts

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Rupture of a line carrying hydrocarbon gas at the Sun Oil Co.'s giant refinery caused two sharp explosions and a small fire Thursday night. No injuries were reported.

Herbert Thober, the refinery manager, said damage probably would be minor. The fire was under control in just over one hour. Plant firemen and 12 units from the Toledo Fire Department fought the blaze.

Thober said the break was in the $8 million naphthalene plant, which was to have been down for an overhaul Monday. He couldn't determine if the explosions were related to the shutdown operation.

The company kept firemen at the plant throughout the night and permitted the gas to burn off harmlessly.

Columbus Firemen Fight 6-Hour Blaze

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Firemen, hampered by the threat of explosions from highly volatile shoe dye thinner, fought a blaze for more than six hours Thursday that heavily damaged a three-story leather goods store and apartment building in downtown Columbus.

Nine persons who lived in upstairs apartments were left homeless by the fire, which apparently started in the basement of a leather goods store at 31 W. Town St. owned by Alex Kaetzel. There was no official damage estimate, but unofficial estimates went as high as $175,000.

More than 50 firemen and 16 pieces of equipment were used against the two-alarm fire. Several firemen were treated with oxygen for smoke inhalation but returned to duty.

Fire department officials said that the cause of the fire had not been determined.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

'Carats' and Lettuce!

DEAR ABBY: What should a person do when someone asks her how many carats her diamond ring is? I have recently become engaged and am wearing a very beautiful diamond ring. I have had people I hardly know ask me this question. Of course I know how many carats my ring is but I don't think it's anybody else's business. How should I handle this?

HAVE A DIAMOND
DEAR HAVE: Those who ask how many carats a diamond is are far more interested in how much lettuce is involved. The only good answer to a presumptuous question is an honest, "I'm not telling."

DEAR ABBY: My wife is my problem. We've been married 22 years and have one child, a daughter 17. She's a normal, average girl and has never given us any trouble. My wife has been a personal maid for this child all her life. She's never allowed her to spend a night with a girl friend or go to summer camp. When the question of college came up, my wife said if Doris (not her real name) went away to college, life wouldn't be worth living and she'd die of loneliness. Personally, I think Doris should go away to college. She wants to, but her mother won't even discuss it. What should be done?

ONLY THE FATHER
DEAR ONLY: It appears that you already have one neurotic woman on your hands—do you want to try for two? Ask your clergyman, family doctor or someone outside your family, whose opinion your wife respects, to point out to your wife that her "attachment" to her daughter is not good. Now is the time to curtail it, or you will soon be looking for a psychiatrist with twin couches.

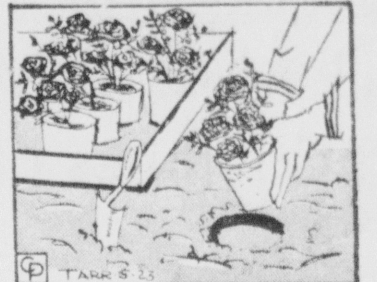

DEAR ABBY: We had a big discussion about which is more important in rearing children—heredity or environment. It is very discouraging for parents to be told that, in spite of their efforts, heredity plays a far more important part in the character of their children. I disagree completely. I'd like your views.

THINKER
DEAR THINKER: The frightening thing about heredity and en-

Wife Preservers

Give your garden immediate color in spots which haven't yet bloomed, by immersing clay-potted plants in the garden soil up to their rims. These can be moved around at will, as well as used indoors.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1889, between two and three thousand lives were lost at Johnstown, Pennsylvania, when heavy rains caused the dam across South Fork, 12 miles above the city, to burst. Fire at wreckage piled up at a railroad bridge added to the horror and inspired a four million dollar relief fund—one of the first such responses to a disaster.

In 1790, the first copyright law was passed by Congress.

In 1862 the Battle of Fair Oaks, Virginia — one of the bloodiest encounters of the Civil War — was fought.

In 1916, the naval Battle of Jutland began in the North Sea.

In 1926, the Sesqui-centennial Exposition opened in Philadelphia.

In 1941, the British evacuated the Island of Crete.

Ten years ago Queen Elizabeth issued a combined birthday and coronation honors list — which was made up of 1,449 names, and bestowed knighthoods on a number of them, including actor John Gielgud and acting jockey Gordon Richards.

Five years ago, President Coty of France formally designated Charles de Gaulle as premier, competing De Gaulle's fight for full control of the nation to avert civil war.

One year ago, Adolf Eichmann, the former Gestapo officer convicted of a major role in the Nazi extermination of Jews in World War two, was hanged in Ramle, Israel.

Today's birthday: Prince Ranier of Monaco is 40 years old today. Actor Don Ameche is 55.

The following is from Baha'i Writings: "All created things have their degree or stage of maturity. Similarly there are periods and stages in the collective life of humanity. At one time it was passing through its stage of childhood, at another its period of youth; but now it has entered its long-predicted phase of maturity."

Ohio Peace Corps Aides Are Jeered

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A husband-and-wife team from Akron, Ohio, and 15 other Peace Corps volunteers who arrived in Indonesia Thursday were greeted by 150 chanting, slogan-waving Communist demonstrators shouting "Peace Corps go home."

Joseph and Janet Axline of Akron ignored the demonstrators and were welcomed by Indonesian foreign and sports ministries officials and members of the American Embassy.

Despite the demonstration, there was no violence. Military troops and policemen in full battle gear lined the airport avenues to prevent any violent outbursts.

NLRB Hearing Set For Wilmington

CINCINNATI (AP)—A construction worker's charge that he was unfairly fired at a union's request will be aired at the hearing set for June 27 by the National Labor Relations Board.

The unfair labor practice charge was filed by Clarence Disson Jr., who said Local 290, AFL-CIO International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, got the Marion Contracting Corp. to fire him April 3 because he did not belong to the labor organization.

Disson said he was working on the Marion-based company's Clinton-Massie job site near Wilmington when he was fired.

The NLRB hearing will be at Wilmington, the board said.

Bim is a clown—that is his business. He can always do the wrong thing at the right time.

But Bim is no fool. Out of the circus ring he always tries to do the right thing at the right time. Those winter Sundays in Florida, before the show goes on the road, you might sit next to Bim in church, and never know he is a clown.

And even though on the road, when Sunday is moving day, Bim gets out his old worn Bible and his teacher's guide, and with his own kids, and with all the other "show" kids gathered 'round him, there is Sunday School on the circus train.

You see, Bim is a Christian, living his faith through all the complications of a strange occupation. He is not a mask—he is Bim. He is the churchman of a circus train—the Sunday School teacher of show business. He knows when to put fun and frolic aside, and turn to the Truth by which we live!

The Church invites you and your family to worship next Sunday and every Sunday.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1889, between two and three thousand lives were lost at Johnstown, Pennsylvania, when heavy rains caused the dam across South Fork, 12 miles above the city, to burst. Fire at wreckage piled up at a railroad bridge added to the horror and inspired a four million dollar relief fund—one of the first such responses to a disaster.

Ten years ago Queen Elizabeth issued a combined birthday and coronation honors list — which was made up of 1,449 names, and bestowed knighthoods on a number of them, including actor John Gielgud and acting jockey Gordon Richards.

Five years ago, President Coty of France formally designated Charles de Gaulle as premier, competing De Gaulle's fight for full control of the nation to avert civil war.

One year ago, Adolf Eichmann, the former Gestapo officer convicted of a major role in the Nazi extermination of Jews in World War two, was hanged in Ramle, Israel.

Local Baha'i Group Lists Weekly Thought

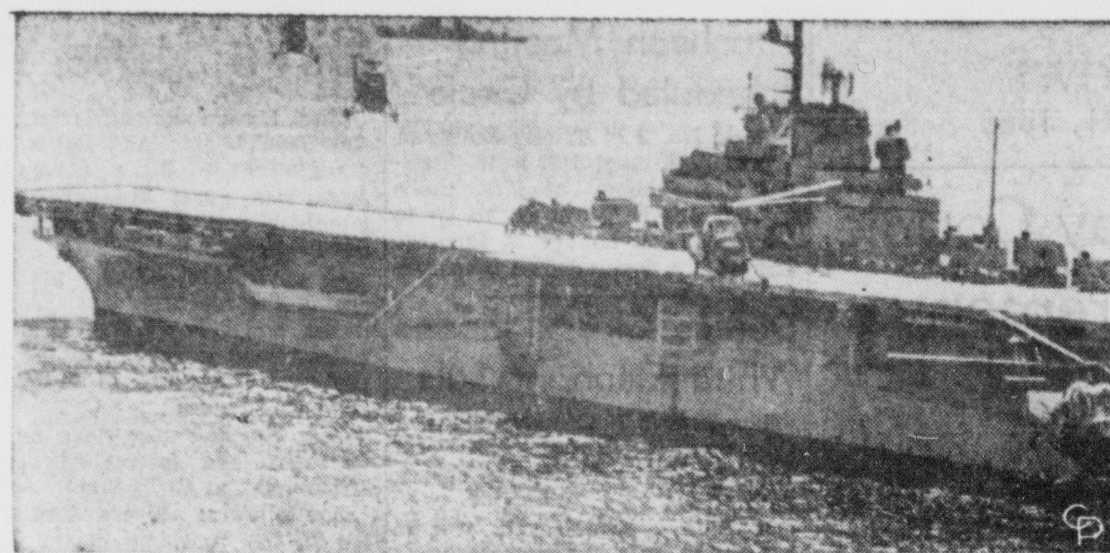

The following is from Baha'i Writings: "All created things have their degree or stage of maturity. Similarly there are periods and stages in the collective life of humanity. At one time it was passing through its stage of childhood, at another its period of youth; but now it has entered its long-predicted phase of maturity."

Ohio Peace Corps Aides Are Jeered

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A husband-and-wife team from Akron, Ohio, and 15 other Peace Corps volunteers who arrived in Indonesia Thursday were greeted by 150 chanting, slogan-waving Communist demonstrators shouting "Peace Corps go home."

Joseph and Janet Axline of Akron ignored the demonstrators and were welcomed by Indonesian foreign and sports ministries officials and members of the American Embassy.

Despite the demonstration, there was no violence. Military troops and policemen in full battle gear lined the airport avenues to prevent any violent outbursts.

ASSAULT EXERCISES OFF HAITI—Marine helicopters go through assault exercises over the aircraft carrier Boxer off Haiti. In background is the destroyer Putman. NLRB Hearing Set For Wilmington

CINCINNATI (AP)—A construction worker's charge that he was unfairly fired at a union's request will be aired at the hearing set for June 27 by the National Labor Relations Board.

The unfair labor practice charge was filed by Clarence Dison Jr., who said Local 290, AFL-CIO International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, got the Marion Contracting Corp. to fire him April 3 because he did not belong to the labor organization.

Dison said he was working on the Marion-based company's Clinton-Massie job site near Wilmington when he was fired.

The NLRB hearing will be at Wilmington, the board said.

Bim is a clown—that is his business. He can always do the wrong thing at the right time.

But Bim is no fool. Out of the circus ring he always tries to do the right thing at the right time. Those winter Sundays in Florida, before the show goes on the road, you might sit next to Bim in church, and never know he is a clown.

And even though on the road, when Sunday is moving day, Bim gets out his old worn Bible and his teacher's guide, and with his own kids, and with all the other "show" kids gathered 'round him, there is Sunday School on the circus train.

You see, Bim is a Christian, living his faith through all the complications of a strange occupation. He is not a mask—he is Bim. He is the churchman of a circus train—the Sunday School teacher of show business. He knows when to put fun and frolic aside, and turn to the Truth by which we live!

The Church invites you and your family to worship next Sunday and every Sunday.

The Law of the Lord

THE ABIDING POWER OF THE WORD OF GOD WHEN OBEYED BY A NATION OR AN INDIVIDUAL

Scripture—Nehemiah 8; Psalms 119; 119.

By N. SPEER JONES
THE SETTING for the first selection from today's lesson is Jerusalem in 444 B.C. Ezra the scribe, has come on his second expedition to the city from Babylonia. On his first expedition, 14 years earlier, he led nearly 2,000 of the exiles back to their home. Now he has come again, to find the Jewish religion and laws deeply corrupted.

Ezra was a great authority on the Jewish law, the most famous of the scribes, or legal authorities. He was evidently vastly respected in his day, for the people of Jerusalem assembled voluntarily "as one man" to hear him read and interpret the Scriptures, which at that time consisted mostly of the law.

GOLDEN TEXT

"The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes."—Psalm 119:8.

This reading took two days. Its consequences were very impressive. The people burst into tears, probably through recognition of their own sins and through the joy of seeing once more the Way of God, which they had been apart from for so many years.

Furthermore, this reading brought about re-establishment of the Jewish religion, to the extent that many today regard him as the second founder of the nation.

The description of Ezra's reading is vivid; it established the pattern for the sermons we hear today.

Psalm 119 predates the story of Ezra by more than 500 years, for it was written by David. It consists of two definite and rather than by verse and with in each section, each verse begins with the same letter.

Such a complex work of poetry could only be worked out by a man who had a great deal of time to spend on the project. We do not know who the author was, beyond the fact that he appears to have been a great scholar and respecter of the law, and that he apparently was a Levite, for the phrase he uses, "Thou art my portion, O Lord," was used in the Scriptures about the Levites.

Communists Close Escape Hatches

LONDON (AP) — The Communists are relentlessly closing the escape hatches through which over 10 million refugees have slipped to freedom since the end of World War II.

Once over a million a year made it. Now there is only a trickle flowing through cracks in the Red walls.

In the month before the Communists walled off Berlin, 30,000 East Germans escaped to the Western half of the divided city.

Now about 12 persons a week succeed in defying nearly impossible odds to reach West Berlin.

In the five months following the abortive 1956 uprising, 170,000 Hungarians poured into Vienna, once a haven for fleeing East Europeans. Now two or three Hungarians a month make it across the 200-mile border with Austria, mostly in winter when frozen ground offers protection against land mines.

During the Korean War 2 million North Koreans risked their lives under gunfire from both sides, racing across heavily mined battlefields to South Korea. Today the boundary is tightly sealed, halting the refugee flow.

Last fall more than 10,000 refugees from Red China crossed into Hong Kong and the nearby Portuguese colony of Macao every month. Last month the figure dropped to 2,000.

In North Viet Nam and Chinese-ruled Tibet the flight of refugees has all but stopped.

There are no accurate estimates of the number killed or injured while trying to escape. About 50 persons have lost their lives trying to flee to West Berlin since the wall was built. Some were shot. Others drowned while trying to swim canals or lakes. A few died jumping off buildings. Communist military power, however, is not the only reason for the swindling rate of refugees.

The slump in desertion from Red China, for example, also arises from increased food production on the Chinese mainland and tighter border controls clamped down by British authorities to keep over-populated Hong Kong from starving.

Others have preferred to live under communism. Since 1959, 79,281 Koreans living in Japan have chosen to be repatriated to Communist North Korea.

Still, as indicated by the more than 250,000 Cuban exiles in the United States, the flight from communism continues.

The Law of the Lord

THE ABIDING POWER OF THE WORD OF GOD WHEN OBEYED BY A NATION OR AN INDIVIDUAL

Scripture—Nehemiah 8; Psalms 119; 119.

By N. SPEER JONES
THE SETTING for the first selection from today's lesson is Jerusalem in 444 B.C. Ezra the scribe has come on his second expedition to the city from Babylonia. On his first expedition, 14 years earlier, he led nearly 2,000 of the exiles back to their home. Now he has come again, to find the Jewish religion and laws deeply corrupted.

Ezra was a great authority on the Jewish law, the most famous of the scribes, or legal authorities. He was evidently vastly respected in his day, for the people of Jerusalem assembled voluntarily "as one man" to hear him read and interpret the Scriptures, which at that time consisted mostly of the law.

GOLDEN TEXT

"The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes."—Psalm 119:8.

This reading took two days. Its consequences were very impressive. The people burst into tears, probably through recognition of their own sins and through the joy of seeing once more the Way of God, which they had been apart from for so many years.

Furthermore, this reading brought about re-establishment of the Jewish religion, to the extent that many today regard him as the second founder of the nation.

The description of Ezra's reading is vivid; it established the pattern for the sermons we hear today.

Psalm 119 predates the story of Ezra by more than 500 years. The precepts, the judgments and the testimonies, each with a different shade of meaning.

The Word of God is described as the word, the law, the commandments, the statutes, the precepts, the judgments and the testimonies, each with a different shade of meaning.

By the Division of Christian Education, in the U.S.A., and used by permission.

rather than by verse and with in each section, each verse begins with the same letter.

Such a complex work of poetry could only be worked out by a man who had a great deal of time to spend on the project. We do not know who the author was, beyond the fact that he appears to have been a great scholar and respecter of the law, and that he apparently was a Levite, for the phrase he uses, "Thou art my portion, O Lord," was used in the Scriptures about the Levites.

The Word of God is described as the word, the law, the commandments, the statutes, the precepts, the judgments and the testimonies, each with a different shade of meaning.

sides, racing across heavily mined battlefields to South Korea. Today the boundary is tightly sealed, halting the refugee flow.

Last fall more than 10,000 refugees from Red China crossed into Hong Kong and the nearby Portuguese colony of Macao every month. Last month the figure dropped to 2,000.

In North Viet Nam and Chinese-ruled Tibet the flight of refugees has all but stopped.

There are no accurate estimates of the number killed or injured while trying to escape. About 30 persons have lost their lives trying to flee to West Berlin since the wall was built. Some were shot. Others drowned while trying to swim canals or lakes. A few died jumping off buildings. Communist military power, however, is not the only reason for the swindling rate of refugees.

The slump in desertion from Red China, for example, also arises from increased food production on the Chinese mainland and tighter border controls clamped down by British authorities to keep over-populated Hong Kong from starving.

Others have preferred to live under communism. Since 1959, 79,281 Koreans living in Japan have chosen to be repatriated to Communist North Korea.

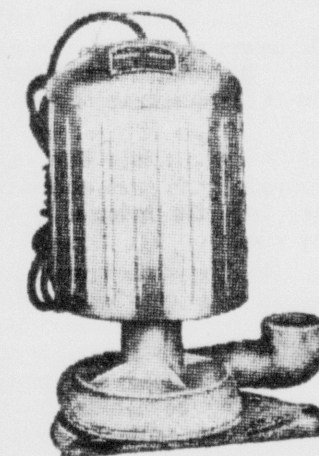

Still, as indicated by the more than 250,000 Cuban exiles in the United States, the flight from communism continues.

DeGaulle Runs Government Like General Staff Officer

PARIS (AP)—As president of France, Charles de Gaulle runs his government with the steady, well organized routine of a general staff officer.

Orders move calmly through channels on regular schedule. There are no breathless post-midnight sessions, no hectic excitement.

When the president goes to bed the story goes, the Elysee Palace staff must not disturb him except in case of world war—and the accent is on the adjective.

Two aspects of De Gaulle's working methods betray the 72-year-old president as a man of another generation: he uses the telephone as little as possible, and he does not dictate streams of letters or memos.

A lot of mail pours into the Elysee Palace, and De Gaulle reads a surprisingly large amount of it. He writes his comment on the margin, or below the body of the letter, and his instructions as to how it should be answered.

For speeches or major statements De Gaulle writes the text himself in longhand, frequently revising. De Gaulle's handwriting is so illegible that he then dictates the text to a secretary. When this is typed, the president usually makes further revisions, and this all has to be typed again.

This virtually is the only time that De Gaulle consents to dictate to a secretary.

The keynote of the Elysee Palace routine is to organize time so as to conserve the general's energies. One little note helps to evoke the general staff atmosphere: the Elysee staff invariably refers to him as "Le General" instead of "Le President."

De Gaulle's habit of approaching a problem is to gather advice and all possible information from specialists and trusted subordinates, then make his own study, alone in his office or in his private living room.

Once he has made up his mind it is most difficult to change it. But this manner, according to persons near him, is not authoritarian.

De Gaulle puts in a sort of 5½-day week from Monday morning to Saturday noon. Office hours on weekdays run from about 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. with a two-hour midday break.

DeGaulle Runs Government Like General Staff Officer

PARIS (AP)—As president of France, Charles de Gaulle runs his government with the steady, well organized routine of a general staff officer.

Orders move calmly through channels on regular schedule. There are no breathless post-midnight sessions, no hectic excitement.

When the president goes to bed the story goes, the Elysee Palace staff must not disturb him except in case of world war—and the accent is on the adjective.

Two aspects of De Gaulle's working methods betray the 72-year-old president as a man of another generation: he uses the telephone as little as possible, and he does not dictate streams of letters or memos.

A lot of mail pours into the Elysee Palace, and De Gaulle reads a surprisingly large amount of it.

He writes his comment on the margin, or below the body of the letter, and his instructions as to how it should be answered.

For speeches or major statements De Gaulle writes the text himself in longhand, frequently revising. De Gaulle's handwriting is so illegible that he then dictates the text to a secretary. When this is typed, the president usually makes further revisions, and this all has to be typed again.

This virtually is the only time that De Gaulle consents to dictate to a secretary.

The keynote of the Elysee Palace routine is to organize time so as to conserve the general's energies. One little note helps to evoke the general staff atmosphere: the Elysee Staff almost invariably refers to him as "Le General" instead of "Le President."

De Gaulle's habit in approaching a problem is to gather advice and all possible information from specialists and trusted subordinates, then make his own study, alone in his office or in his private living room.

Once he has made up his mind it is most difficult to change it. But this manner, according to persons near him, is not authoritarian.

De Gaulle puts in a sort of 5½-day week from Monday morning to Saturday noon. Office hours on weekdays run from about 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. with a two-hour midday break.

Giants Top Redlegs To Increase Lead

CINCINNATI (AP)—The combination of good relief pitching and home run hitting was unbeatable for the San Francisco Giants Thursday night.

They defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 and increased their National League lead to 2½ games.

The victory went to Billy O'Dell (8-0), but Bob Bolin had to come to his rescue in the seventh.

Joe Nuxhall (4-3), who alternately was very effective and very vulnerable was the losing pitcher.

He struck out the Giants in order twice, but his big mistake was in throwing home run balls to Cap Peterson in the fifth and Felipe Alou in the sixth.

The Giants, with Willie Mays in probably the worst batting slump of his long career, took the series from the Reds two games to one, and gained one game on second-place Los Angeles, who lost a holiday game to Milwaukee.

Mays did not get a hit in the series and has had only one hit in the last 20 times at bat. His average has dropped to .236.

The Reds, trying desperately to get into contention, remained in sixth place in the National League.

They now are confronted with the task of trying to get started again tonight against Los Angeles, the first game of a three-game series.

Jim Maloney will pitch for Cincinnati against the Dodgers' Bob Miller.

Tom Matte, running back for the Baltimore Colts, refurbishes antiques as a hobby.

Stan Musial has appeared in 100 games for the St. Louis Cardinals for the past 20 consecutive years, a major league record.

Legion Team Splits Twin Bill at Park

The Circleville American Legion junior baseball team split a doubleheader with Washington C. H. yesterday, winning the second game 4-1 after losing the first, 7-3.

George Reeser hurled a two-hitter for the local team in the second tilt to pick up the win.

Reeser went the route, fanning 10, issuing a lone base on balls. The only hits he allowed were a single in the sixth and a triple in the seventh that set up the visitors' run.

Getting off to an early lead, Circleville scored a pair of runs on back to back singles and an error in the first inning. In the second on a pair of walks set up the run while three walks in the third aided the cause of the winners.

ARNIE GABRIEL wielded a big bat for the locals in the second tilt, cracking a single and a double in three official at bats and walking the fourth time up. He scored one run.

Doyle was the losing pitcher. In the first game of the afternoon, Gary Ferguson started for the local team, but was relieved in the third by Mick Hunt after giving up seven hits and five runs.

Ferguson, charged with the loss, was touched for a triple, four doubles and two singles. The Court House nine scored two runs off Hunt in the final frame.

All three Circleville runs came in the fourth inning when the losers combined three singles and a walk to score.

THE GAMES were the first in the newly formed South Central Ohio League American Legion Junior baseball schedule.

Other teams in the loop are Mt. Sterling, Wilmington, Greenfield and Hillsboro.

Sunday Circleville Post 134 travels to Mt. Sterling for another loop twinbill.

Landis Is Named Boss of Athletics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Paul E. Landis, assistant commissioner of Ohio high school athletics since 1958, Wednesday was named acting commissioner by the State Board of Control at an emergency session.

He'll fill the vacancy left by the death Sunday night of Commissioner W. J. McConnell.

The board will hold its summer session here June 12, at which time a permanent appointment may be made.

Landis, a 1923 graduate of Oberlin College, coached basketball at Bowling Green State University for 17 years, then served as director of health and physical education for the state, before taking over as McConnell's assistant Aug. 15, 1958.

Four men and two women bowling teams from Circleville will compete in the regional Bowling Proprietors of America Assn. tournament scheduled June 15 and 16.

The six teams won positions in the regional event during the local BPAA tourney held at Prairie Lanes May 19.

Winning the men's division was the DuPont Technical team, Ankrum Lumber, captained by George Ankrum, was second. In third place was Prairie Lanes and in fourth place Ralston Purina.

Winning fifth, but failing to qualify for the regional tournament was the J and I Market team. Dougherty Appliance finished sixth.

THE FIRST four place teams will travel to Athens where the men's division of the tourney will be held.

Winning the women's division locally was the Black Label beer team, captained by Jane Kocher.

In second place and also earning a berth in the regional event was the Prairie Lanes team, captained by Madeline Saunders. General Electric No. 1 was third and in fourth was the Prairie Lanes team captained by Gloria Grooms.

The first and second place teams will go to Zanesville where the women's division of the BPAA tourney will be held.

Chateaugay, John Galbreath's 1963 Kentucky Derby winner, is a full sister to former filly champion Primonetta. Their sire was Swaps and their dam Banquet Bell.

FAITHFUL AFTER THE END—A male mallard duck stands watch over his dead mate, apparently hit by a car and thrown onto a small, grass island in a downtown Madison, Wis., street, for several hours before ending his faithful vigil.

Tribe Far Behind Pace Of Year Ago

CLEVELAND (AP)—What a difference a year makes! On May 31, 1962, the Cleveland Indians were tied with the New York Yankees for the American League lead with a 25-17 record. They wound up 16 games behind in sixth place, however.

This season, the Indians are in eighth place, 9½ games behind the leading Baltimore Orioles and in the throes of a slump of seven losses in the past eight games. Their record is 17-23.

The Indians dropped a pair to the White Sox in Chicago Thursday, 8-4 and 4-2, after blowing leads in both games.

The Indians led 3-0 against the White Sox in the first game Thursday behind Sam McDowell until the Chicagoans exploded for four runs in the third inning.

After the Indians tied the score in the sixth on a double by Woodie Held and a single by Mike de la Hoz, Ron Hansen belted a home run in Chicago's sixth to break the 4-4 tie and send the White Sox winging. Chicago added three wrapup runs in the eighth inning.

Barry Latman started the second game for the Indians, his first start in a long time. Cleveland gave him a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning on a single by Gene Green, a run-producing double by Held and a wild pitch.

But a four-run rally in the fifth frame chased Latman and the Sox brought in Frank Baumann to pitch two-hit scoreless ball for four innings.

Central State Cops Honors in Track

CLEVELAND (AP)—Wittenberg's Bob Cherry captured three events and Central State won the team championship in the All-Ohio Track Meet Thursday.

Cherry won the high jump, the 330-yard hurdles and the 120-yard hurdles in meet record time of 14 seconds flat, two-tenths of a second better than Harrison Dillard's 17-year-old record.

Central State compiled 65 points to finish far ahead of Ohio University with 40 points. Next came host Baldwin - Wallace with 24 points, Akron 22, Wittenberg 18, Ohio State and Kent State 16 Ohio Wesleyan 15, Bowling Green 13 and the other schools were far down the list.

Champaign, Ill. (AP)—Illinois and Western Michigan have scored opening victories in the double-elimination District 4 NCAA baseball playoffs and will meet in the second round today.

Illinois, the Big Ten champion, romped over Valparaiso 31-2 Thursday.

Western Michigan, Mid-American Conference champion, edged Notre Dame 2-1 to boost its record to 22-3. The Broncos pushed over the deciding run in the last of the ninth.

Notre Dame and Valpo will meet in today's other game. The district winner will be crowned Saturday and qualify for the NCAA finals in Omaha June 10-14.

Legion Team Splits Twin Bill at Park

The Circleville American Legion junior baseball team split a doubleheader with Washington C. H. yesterday, winning the second game 4-1 after losing the first, 7-3.

George Reeser hurled a two-hitter for the local team in the second tilt to pick up the win. Reeser went the route, fanning 10, issuing a lone base on balls. The only hits he allowed were a single in the sixth and a triple in the seventh that set up the visitors' run.

Getting off to an early lead, Circleville scored a pair of runs on back to back singles and an error in the first inning. In the second on a pair of walks set up the run while three walks in the third added the cause of the winners.

ARNIE GABRIEL wielded a big bat for the locals in the second tilt, cracking a single and a double in three official at bats and walking the fourth time up. He scored one run.

Doyle was the losing pitcher. In the first game of the afternoon, Gary Ferguson started for the local team, but was relieved in the third by Mick Hunt after giving up seven hits and five runs. Ferguson, charged with the loss, was touched for a triple, four doubles and two singles. The Court House nine scored two runs off Hunt in the final frame.

All three Circleville runs came in the fourth inning when the losers combined three singles and a walk to score.

THE GAMES were the first in the newly formed South Central Ohio League American Legion Junior baseball schedule.

Other teams in the loop are Mt. Sterling, Wilmington, Greenfield and Hillsboro.

Sunday Circleville Post 134 travels to Mt. Sterling for another loop twinbill.

Landis Is Named Boss of Athletics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Paul E. Landis, assistant commissioner of Ohio high school athletics since 1958, Wednesday was named acting commissioner by the State Board of Control at an emergency session.

He'll fill the vacancy left by the death Sunday night of Commissioner W. J. McConnell.

The board will hold its summer session here June 12, at which time a permanent appointment may be made.

Landis, a 1923 graduate of Oberlin College, coached basketball at Bowling Green State University for 17 years, then served as director of health and physical education for the state, before taking over as McConnell's assistant Aug. 15, 1958.

FAITHFUL AFTER THE END—A male mallard duck stands watch over his dead mate, apparently hit by a car and thrown onto a small, grass island in a downtown Madison, Wis., street, for several hours before ending his faithful vigil.

Tribe Far Behind Pace Of Year Ago

CLEVELAND (AP)—What a difference a year makes! On May 31, 1962, the Cleveland Indians were tied with the New York Yankees for the American League lead with a 25-17 record. They wound up 16 games behind in sixth place, however.

This season, the Indians are in eighth place, 9½ games behind the leading Baltimore Orioles and in the throes of a slump of seven losses in the past eight games. Their record is 17-23.

The Indians dropped a pair to the White Sox in Chicago Thursday, 8-4 and 4-2, after blowing leads in both games.

The Indians led 3-0 against the White Sox in the first game Thursday behind Sam McDowell until the Chicagoans exploded for four runs in the third inning.

After the Indians tied the score in the sixth on a double by Woodie Held and a single by Mike de la Hoz, Ron Hansen belted a home run in Chicago's sixth to break the 4-4 tie and send the White Sox winging. Chicago added three wrapup runs in the eighth inning.

Barry Latman started the second game for the Indians, his first start in a long time. Cleveland gave him a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning on a single by Gene Green, a run-producing double by Held and a wild pitch.

But a four-run rally in the fifth frame chased Latman and the Sox brought in Frank Baumann to pitch two-hit scoreless ball for four innings.

Central State Cops Honors in Track

CLEVELAND (AP)—Wittenberg's Bob Cherry captured three events and Central State won the team championship in the All-Ohio Track Meet Thursday.

Cherry won the high jump, the 330-yard hurdles and the 120-yard hurdles in meet record time of 14 seconds flat, two-tenths of a second better than Harrison Dillard's 17-year-old record.

Central State compiled 65 points to finish far ahead of Ohio University with 40 points. Next came host Baldwin - Wallace with 24 points, Akron 22, Wittenberg 18, Ohio State and Kent State 16 Ohio Wesleyan 15, Bowling Green 13 and the other schools were far down the list.

District NCAA Playoffs Open

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois and Western Michigan have scored opening victories in the double-elimination District 4 NCAA baseball playoffs and will meet in the second round today.

Illinois, the Big Ten champion, romped over Valparaiso 31 - 2 Thursday.

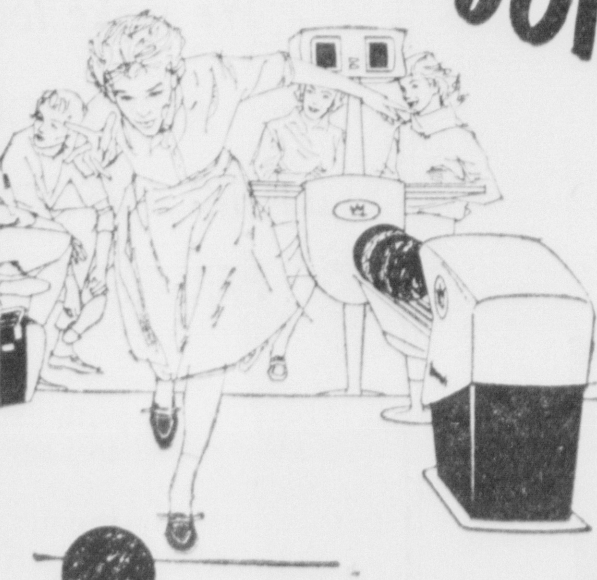

Western Michigan, Mid-American Conference champion, edged Notre Dame 2-1 to boost its record to 22-3. The Broncos pushed over the deciding run in the last of the ninth.

Notre Dame and Valpo will meet in today's other game. The district winner will be crowned Saturday and qualify for the NCAA finals in Omaha June 10-14.

Jones Is Amazed By '500' Victory

TAKES MEMORIAL BY 33 SECONDS — P.H.E.W! exclaims Parnelli Jones as he pulls into the Victory Lane to be kissed by his wife, Grace, (left) after winning the 1963 500-mile Speedway Race with a record breaking speed of 143.137 M.P.H. J. C. Aganjanian owner of the winning car holds Jones' head as he lets off steam. Jones who finished only 33 seconds ahead of a free-wheeling Scotman named Jimmy Clark picked up $150,000 of the $450,000 purse.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Parnelli Jones sat in his Aganjanian Willard Special and kept repeating:

"I just can't believe it. I just can't believe it."

The 29-year-old Torrance, Calif., driver moved like a man in a dream after his record victory in the rich Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day Classic.

"I just can't get it into my head," Jones said softly into the confusion of the victory celebration around him.

J. C. Aganjanian, the car owner, kissed him. Aganjanian's wife kissed him. His own wife kissed him.

"You won the race, Rufus," Aganjanian shouted to the man who was born Rufus Parnelli Jones. "You're the greatest."

Jones, who had won the pole position for the second straight year was favored in the race, but had to drive his heart out to beat Scotsman Jimmy Clark in a rear-engine Lotus-Ford.

Clark was one of those who complained after the race that Jones car was spilling oil onto the track just before he took the winner's checkered flag.

However, Chief Steward Harlan Fenger refused to wave Jones into the pits.

"You can't take this race away from a man on snap judgment," said Fenger, who also noted that other cars were throwing oil.

Clark, No. 2 in world road racing standings last year, and Dan Gurney, another Grand Prix racer from Costa Mesa, Calif., ran 23 behind Jones through the late stages of the race.

After charging his hardest for 3 1/2 hours, Jones crossed the finish line a tick under 34 seconds ahead of Clark.

Jones won't know how much he won until the Indianapolis Motor Speedway cuts up a purse of possibly one-half million dollars at tonight's victory dinner. He knows he won $25,000 in lap prize money for leading 167 of the race's 200 laps. The front runner gets $150 a lap in addition to the main prizes.

The soft-spoken king of the country's sprint tracks, also knows that he had to break the notes of the City about to fall due and thereby to preserve and enhance the City's credit; WHEREFORE, it shall go into immediate effect upon its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Minnesota '9' Insists It Is Pennant-Bound

Twins Chalk Up 10th Straight Victory in Tight AL Scramble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Some people are sloughing us off in their pennant predictions. It turns me up and I hope it has the same effect on the players."

The words belong to Minnesota Manager Sam Mele.

Continuing to climb up the standings in the tightening American League pennant scramble, the Twins maintained their sizzling pace Thursday with a 3-2 victory over Washington that accounted for their 10th consecutive victory.

The triumph gave the Twins the longest winning streak in the majors this season. It also left them only one-half game out of the first division after floundering at the tail-end of the standings for the first month of the season.

One of the things Mele has going for him is right-hander Camilo Pascual, who has won three of the 10 games in the streak. Against the Senators, he scattered eight singles and, finding himself short on runs, drove in the winner with a sacrifice fly in the ninth inning.

At the top of the standings, Kansas City made it two straight over league-leading Baltimore beating the Orioles 7-2 and trimming their edge to two games over the runner-up New York Yankees, 6-5 winners in 10 innings at Boston.

The third-place Chicago White Sox closed to within three games of the top with a doubleheader sweep over Cleveland, 8-4 and 4-2, while Detroit whipped the Los Angeles Angels 3-0 behind Hank Aguirre's four-hit pitching in a second division struggle.

National League leading San Francisco edged Cincinnati 5-4. Milwaukee defeated the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers 7-4 and St. Louis belted Houston 9-5 in single games. The others split doubleheaders, Pittsburgh downed Philadelphia 7-1, then lost 6-5 and the Chicago Cubs slugged New York 12-0 before the Mets squeezed by 2-1 in the nightcap.

The A's, who had lost 10 straight to Steve Barber, bombed the Orioles' left-hander for six runs in 5-13 innings and handed him his fourth loss against eight victories. Bobby Del Greco collected three hits for Kansas City and Ed Charles hit a two-run homer.

Ed Rakow, 6-2, was the winner, but needed John Wyatt's relief help.

Clete Boyer drove in the deciding run for the Yankees with a sacrifice fly in the 10th after the Red Sox had tied the score in the ninth on Ed Bressoud's two-out homer, his second of the game.

Roger Maris led the New York attack with his seventh homer, a single and a bases-loaded walk in the seventh inning that broke a 4-4 tie. Ralph Terry went the distance for a 6-4 record.

Ron Hansen played a key role for the White Sox in both come-from-behind victories over the Indians. He smacked a homer in the sixth inning of the opener to snap a 4-4 tie and singled home a run in a four-run fifth inning upsurge that wrapped up the nightcap.

Aguirre won for the first time in 5 1/2 weeks and squared his record at 4-4. Home runs by Jake Wood off loser Bob Turley, and Gus Triandos made Aguirre's job easier.

The Los Angeles Dodgers stole 198 bases in 1962. Maury Wills had 104. Willie Davis stole 32 times

Indianapolis Still Ramping

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indianapolis pitchers, who managed only one shutout in the Indians' first 45 International League baseball games, now boast two in a row after Joe Shipley and veteran Warren Hacker combined to blank Rochester.

Shipley notched his seventh victory against one loss, but his arm tightened after seven innings and he turned the pitching chores over to ex-major leaguer Hacker in the Indians' 4-0 verdict over the Red Wings Thursday night. Jim Ackley, Indians' right-hander, had blanked the Red Wings Wednesday night.

Arkansas whipped Atlanta's Southern Division leaders 7-3, and surging Richmond swept a doubleheader from slumping Jacksonville 4-0 and 8-4. Syracuse blanked Buffalo 4-0 in the second game after the Northern Division leaders had beat Syracuse 5-2 in the opener.

Toronto split its Memorial Day doubleheader with Columbus, winning the nightcap 6-1 after the Jets had taken the first game 4-3.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

'Old Gray Mayor' Dies at Age 73

CINCINNATI (AP)—Wilmer F. Carmichael, 73, "the old gray mayor" of nearby Silverton and a Cincinnati police reporter for 55 years, died of cancer at Good Samaritan hospital Thursday night.

He continued on the police beat after the Times-Star merged with the Post in 1958. Carmichael finally left the old City Hall press room early this year to work as a suburban reporter for the Post & Times-Star.

He had been mayor of Silverton since 1951.
